

can you cut it in fashion?

Win an Internship, Masterclass or cash prize

The annual David Nieper Student Fashion Competition gives winners the chance to kick-start their careers by working within a commercial design studio and a busy UK production workshop. They are introduced to the business of business.

To compete, design a collection of 5 garments for the 50+ fashionable, professional woman and accompany the collection with an outline marketing strategy and plan.

Full entry details at:

www.fashionacademy.org/competition

Email: entries@fashionacademy.org

Fashion means Business™ at The David Nieper Fashion Academy.

The David Nieper Fashion Academy

lives within a successful UK fashion house with a busy design studio, cut and sew and knitwear manufacturing workshops, graphic design, marketing direct to the consumer and a retail boutique all fully integrated on a single Derbyshire site.

We provide:

- 'Away Days' and Masterclasses for degree students bespoke to the specific requirements of university and college faculties
- the tools that enable businesses to identify and resolve their skills needs, manage staff performance and build for the future. Tutors have the battle scars of their own successes!
- the skills to find a career in fashion for students of all ages and all backgrounds

Contact the Academy's Director, Dr Juliet Williams, CBE without delay:

juliet.williams@fashionacademy.org